

PUBLIC HEALTH REPORTS

Published since 1878

Contents

| | Page |
|---|-------------|
| Effect of fly control on diarrheal disease in an area of moderate morbidity----- Dale R. Lindsay, William H. Stewart, and James Watt. | 361 |
| The 1952 encephalitis outbreak in California----- Wilton L. Halverson, Willian Allen Longshore, Jr., and Richard F. Peters. | 369 |
| Time study of public health activities in Mississippi----- J. A. Milne, Margaret E. Rice, John B. Hozier, and Grace B. Taranto. | 378 |
| Twenty years of followup experience in a long-range medical study-- Eunice Rivers, Stanley H. Schuman, Lloyd Simpson, and Sidney Olansky. | 391 |
| Child health day----- | 396 |
| Maternal and child health services—Challenges and aims----- Leona Baumgartner. | 397 |
| Cardiovascular syphilis in a general medical clinic----- S. P. Lucia, Vernon C. Harp, Jr., and M. L. Hunt. | 405 |
| Public health in Indonesia----- E. Ross Jenney. | 409 |
| Trichinosis: First National Conference, 1952—Eight précis----- | 416 |
| A health and economic problem----- Vernon B. Link. | 417 |
| Garbage-borne swine diseases----- James H. Steele. | 418 |
| Trichinae in swine----- Benjamin Schwartz. | 418 |
| Prevalence and prevention----- S. E. Gould. | 419 |
| Federal meat inspection----- A. R. Miller. | 419 |

Contents for April, continued

| | Page |
|--|-------------|
| Trichinosis: First National Conference, 1952—Continued | 419 |
| Low-temperature treatment----- Donald L. Augustine. | 419 |
| Effect of ionizing radiation----- Henry J. Gomberg and S. E. Gould. | 419 |
| State problems in control----- Oscar Sussman. | 420 |
| Trichinosis control and vesicular exanthema----- Jack C. Haldeman, James H. Steele, and Ralph J. Van Derwerker. | 421 |
| Hospital beds in the United States in 1953----- John W. Cronin, Maurice E. Odoroff, and Leslie Morgan Abbe. | 425 |
| General regulatory powers and duties of State and local health authorities----- Ruth M. Moldenhauer and Clifford H. Greve. | 434 |
| An experiment with group conferences for weight reduction----- A. L. Chapman. | 439 |
| Mortality in the United States, 1900–1950----- Tavia Gordon. | 441 |
| Milk sanitation honor roll for 1951–52----- | 445 |
| A facility for use of radioactive isotopes in a general hospital----- | 449 |
| Short reports and announcements: | |
| Frontispiece . . . ii. Infant mortality . . . ii. Vending stand program . . . 367. Public Health Service staff announcements . . . 390. Venereal disease symposium . . . 395. Child adoption . . . 404. Diabetes exhibits . . . 408. Heart disease screening . . . 415. Public health training courses . . . 433. World health achievements . . . 438. Immunization information . . . 448. | |

